

ARE YOU AWESOME?

FOOTERS CATERING IS SEARCHING FOR DESIGN PRODUCTION

DO YOU LOVE TO BRING A CREATIVE VISION TO LIFE?

We're seeking a highly organized and detail-driven Design Production Manager to bring inspired event designs to life. This collaborative role works closely with our Design Manager, who leads creative vision and concept development, and then takes the reins to oversee production, logistics, and execution to ensure every detail is delivered exactly as intended. This hands-on position translates creative concepts into seamless, real-world experiences. The ideal candidate brings strong project management skills, and a sharp eye for detail. If you thrive at the intersection of creativity and organization, and love turning vision into flawlessly executed reality, we'd love to meet you.

IDEAL CANDIDATE

Loves collaborating with a strong team

Never settles for average

Passionate about creating experiences

Footers Catering and Social Capitol Event Venue are at the forefront of the event and hospitality industry. Our company is recognized nationally for exceptional customer service, culinary innovation, hospitality excellence, and creating a company culture that celebrates the hard work of our employees. Our success is driven by the innovation and passion of our team and we have a work environment that focuses on LOVING WHAT WE DO, MAKING IT BETTER EVERY DAY, and CREATING EXCEPTIONAL EXPERIENCES.

This is a full-time position with first year compensation in the $50,000-$60,000 range. Reliable transportation, ability to lift 20 lbs, and availability to work nights and weekends at events required.
